GROUP ONE Fishing and Frying

The Blackwater River is one of the finest salmon fishing rivers in Ireland and an idyllic stretch of the River runs right by the Castle. Enjoy a morning of fishing accompanied by a professional ghillie, picnic in the little fishing hut then tramp back to the kitchen for a masterclass on preparing and cooking salmon. (All necessities provided – rods, bait, wellies and provisions, and if anyone in your party catches a salmon we will have it smoked and sent to them!)

GROUP TWO The Duke's Mountain Trek

In 1800 the Bachelor Duke built a pass through the Knockmealdown Mountains and called it The Vee. Today The Vee is hugely popular with walkers, hikers and bikers and is one of the most spectacular spots in Southern Ireland. Explore the surrounds with a local guide and enjoy a well-earned pint and toasted sandwich in one of the quiet mountain pubs at the end of a long mountain trek. (All-weather wear and sticks provided but hiking boots needed).

GROUP THREE Golf & Guinness

Fred Astaire once described it as 'charming', and indeed the 9-hole course on Lismore Estate is just that. Set in charming woodlands, the greens are quite lush and always kept in tiptop condition and this nine hole rolling parkland golf course offers a surprisingly good and challenging game of golf. Afterwards, a quick stroll up the village for a light lunch in the Michelin 'bib gourmand' nominated O'Brien's Chop House. (All equipment provided, including golf shoes).

GROUP FOUR Pampering and Preening

Stay at home for a morning of manicures and pedicures, magazines, movies, coffee and cake; this group will enjoy being pampered in the luxurious calm of the Castle.
