

LISMORE CASTLE SHOPPING HEAVEN

Cork city is Ireland's second city and is a thriving, vibrant and dynamic metropolis. Recently voted one of the world's top ten cities to visit by The Lonely Planet Guide it is still practical to shop for pretty much everything you need in the compact city centre. Patrick Street, the main thoroughfare, is the principle focus for shoppers, with department stores, shopping arcades, and chic fashion boutiques. Radiating out from Patrick Street is a network of pretty little pedestrianised side streets with a myriad of shops and cafes.
